The information provided is true to the best of my knowledge. Once I receive my CAS statement, I understand that it is my responsibility to check that the information contained in my CAS statement is correct, including the amount of fees paid, and that I will contact visacompliance@westminster.ac.uk before I make my visa application if any amendments need to be made. The University will accept no liability if your visa application is refused because of errors in the CAS.

I understand that I must bring my new visa to the Visa Compliance office once it is granted so that it can be copied and verified.
